Mentoring Program

Beginning a new life in Canada can be challenging. Making connections in the community can be a big help.

Through our mentoring program newcomers are matched with local volunteers who spend time helping newcomers to:

- Adjust to life in new surroundings
- Find their way around
- Participate in community activities
- Practice English or French
- Meet new people and make new friends

English Conversation Circles

- Practice speaking English with a fun group

Social Events

- Picnics
- Potlucks
- Community tours
